

Mark Fetterly, Director of Drama at Santaluces High School, is a former BAK MSOA theatre teacher and judge with nine years of proven results helping middle and high school students acquire acceptance to both Bak MSOA and Dreyfoos School of the Arts. His career as a professional actor and director throughout the United States is a result of his training at Florida State University (B.A., Theatre; M.S. for Theatre Educators) and New World

School of the Arts. Local audiences are familiar with his work as both director and actor in Lake Worth Playhouse productions of The Woman in Black, Forever Plaid and Rogers & Hammerstein's Cinderella (Prince Charming). Mr. Fetterly's former students can currently be seen on Broadway in Mary Poppins and in film and television productions.